

Can PCI DSS be used to protect non-payment card data?

PCI SSC FAQ | Article 1437 | August 2016

---

PCI DSS provides a solid baseline of security requirements that can be used to protect non-payment card data. However, entities should consult with the applicable regulatory body and/or the data owner, as appropriate, to understand the suitability of using PCI DSS requirements to protect the data in question.

Source: <https://www.pcisecuritystandards.org/faqs/1437/>